Why have you selected this institution, school, college, or university?

In a typed essay format, on a single page, 500 words or less, in 12pt Arial font, please provide a personal statement outlining how you are going to make a difference in the world as an adult. Your essay must highlight why you want to go into your selected field of study, your interests, and your ambitions. In addition to the essay listed above, you must also include a single page student resume and a copy of your high school transcript. If any items are missing, your application will be considered incomplete and denied.
